

Réveillon for Boys Hope Girls Hope

Réveillon, an annual food and wine “party with a purpose” benefiting Boys Hope Girls Hope of Greater New Orleans, took place at the home of Laurie and Jeff Young. Guests dined on a Gulf Coast-inspired menu prepared by the Duplantier family and friends and sipped high-quality wines and specialty craft brews by Sticky Foot Brew Co. Partygoers enjoyed live music by One Lan Band, Aziza and the Cure and Josh Piesecki.

The mission of Boys Hope Girls Hope is to help academically capable and motivated children-in-need to meet their full potential by providing value-centered, family-like homes, opportunities and education through college. BHGH New Orleans was founded in 1980 and currently operates two homes in Mid-City with the capacity to serve eight children between the ages of 8 and 18 in each residence from the time of their admission to their high school graduation. Financial and emotional support continues through college graduation.

Over the last 20 years, this Réveillon event has grown from the vision of a group of friends who wanted to make a difference in the lives of the young BHGH scholars to over 200 guests coming together to do the same.
